

Data Protection Statement

We are pleased about your interest in our company and that you have taken the time to visit our Website. When you make use of our Website, we place utmost value in protecting your data and safeguarding your personal information. We would like to take a moment to let you know what kind of personal information is collected when you visit our Website and for what purposes it is used.

1. Scope

This Data Protection Statement applies to the content of the Website presented by Terex Financial Services, Inc., 200 Nyala Farm Road, Westport, CT, 06880 USA which can be called up at the Website listed under the domain name TFS eService.osgview.com (referred to herein as the "Customer eService Website" or "Website").

2. What is personal data?

Personal data refers to such information that can be used to learn more about you as a person and your current circumstances (e.g. name, address, telephone number, date of birth or e-mail address). Information that does not allow us to establish a direct connection to you as a person (or only with a disproportionate amount of time and effort), e.g. anonymous information, is not considered personal information.

3. What kind of personal data do we collect and process?

You can make use of the majority of our website without having to provide any personal data.

If you take advantage of one of the functions that require us to capture additional data we will prompt you for that information. It is up to your own discretion whether you want to provide us with this information. However, without these details, we will not be able to fulfill your request or we will be unable to offer the requested services, or if it all then only to a limited extent. Any other information you wish to provide is entirely up to you. If you send us an e-mail, the personal data you provided us with in it will be used solely in our correspondence to you.

4. What do we use your data for?

We use your personal data solely so as to be able to provide you with an extensive range of services through our website. We do not use your personal data for any other purposes. We do not transmit your personal information to third parties or use your data for advertising purposes.

5. Anonymous usage data/use of cookies

We may store data in anonymous form on our servers in connection with the information pulled up according to your request. This data allows us to provide a variety of services or it is used for evaluation purposes. In the process, general information is logged, such as at what time which content was retrieved from our pages or which pages are visited most frequently.

We make use of so-called "cookies" (small text files with configuration information) for this purpose. The cookies are used in particular in order for us to determine how often the site is used and the number of users who visit our website. This way we can learn which area of our website our users have visited and which other websites they have visited.

This usage data does not allow us to draw any conclusions about the particular user. None of the anonymously collected usage data is combined with your personal data described in item 3 of this Data Protection Statement, and all such data is deleted immediately after the statistical evaluation is completed.

Most browsers are preset so that cookies are accepted automatically. However, you do have the option to deactivate cookies or to set your browser so that you are notified before cookies are stored. In some cases, users who do not accept cookies may not be able to access certain areas of our Website.

6. Safety measures in place to protect data stored on the Customer eService Website

You can rest assured that any personal information you share with us with via our Website or in your e-mail correspondence with us is safe. We undertake all efforts to protect your privacy and to treat your personal information with utmost confidentiality.

We utilize extensive technical and operational safety precautions to prevent any loss or misuse of the personal information that stories shared with us via our Website. We review these precautions regularly and keep them up-to-date with advances in technology.

Please be aware, however, that because of the structure of the Internet it is possible that data protection rules and the safety precautions described above may not be observed by other individuals or institutions outside of the sphere of our control. Please note especially that any data provided in unencrypted form - even if such is sent by e-mail - may be read by third parties. We have no technical or other influence over this. It is the user's responsibility to assure that the data he or she provides is protected against misuse either by encryption or in another form.

7. Hyperlinks to third-party websites

In some cases there may be so-called hyperlinks on our Website that link to websites of other service providers. If you activate any of these hyperlinks, you will be directed from our Website to the websites of the other service providers. You will recognize this by the change in the URL address.

We cannot be held responsible for assuring that your data is treated with same amount of confidentiality on the websites of these third parties, because it is beyond our sphere of influence, and it is unknown to us whether or not these companies adhere to data protection regulations. This applies in particular to facebook.com. Please go to these websites directly to assess how these companies deal with your personal information.

8. Disclosure about the personal data we store/deletion

We only store the personal details that you provided us with that allow us to contact you for the length of time permitted by law.

Upon request, we would be happy to disclose to you which of your personal details we have on file. If, despite our attempts to store correct and up-to-date information the data we have on file is incorrect, we will, upon request, take steps to correct it immediately. Should you request that we delete the data we have stored, we will, within a reasonable time from the receipt of your request, delete this data as well. If it is not possible to delete this information for legal or other reasons, we will block the data instead. However, please keep in mind that if your data is deleted we will be unable to continue offering the services described herein to you. In any of these cases, please contact:

Terex Financial Services, Inc.

200 Nyala Farm Road

Westport, CT 06880 USA

T: +1 877 837 3922

E: tfsoperations@terex.com